

SEVENTH MEMBERS' MEETING OF SHIPARRESTED.COM
Conference hosted by D'Hoine & Mackay on Friday June 4th, 2010

09:00 – Registration

09:15 - Opening address by Valentine de Callatay, shiparrested.com network

09:30 – Morning session one

“Ship arrest in Panama” / Francisco Carreira –Pitti, Partner, Carreira Pitti P.C. Attorneys / Panama

“Ship arrest in South Africa” / Shane Dwyer, Partner, Shepstone & Wylie / South Africa

“Rotterdam Rules - yes or no?” / Krzysztof Kochanowski, Mar Consult Maritime Solicitors Office / Poland

11:00 – Coffee Break

11:30 –Morning session two

“Ship arrest in Brazil” / Claudia H. Perri, Felsberg e Associados / Brazil

“The ship arrest in Egypt” / Nabil Farag, Managing Partner, Nabil Farag Law Firm / Egypt

“Piracy” / Richard Faint, Arbitrator & Trade Consultant, CharterWise / UK

13: 00 – Conference Lunch

14:30– Afternoon session one

“The US government’s program of boarding and detaining ships in connection with the investigation (and sometime criminal prosecution) of suspected Marpol violations” / George M. Chalos, Partner, Chalos & Co P.C. / US

“Ship Arrest in Peru” / Sandro O. Monteblanco, CEO & Senior Partner, Law Offices of Montblanc & Associates, LLC / Peru

“Recent Topics of Arrest in Japan” / Takayuki Matsui, Maritax Law Office / Japan

16.00 – Coffee Break

16:30 – Afternoon session two

“Ship arrest in Gibraltar” / Christian Hernandez, Partner, Isolas / Gibraltar

“Latest interpretation of the article 3 of 1952 Brussels Convention by Romanian Courts” / Adrian Cristea, Partner, Cristea & Partners Law Offices / Romania

“Is Belgium still an attractive forum for ship arrests?” / Kevin Mackay, D’Hoine & Partners / Belgium

18:00 – Closure of the conference.

20:30 – Conference dinner